Dear Mr. Hughes:

It is with great pleasure that I have noted the announcement of your appointment as Director of the Bureau of the Budget.

I have enjoyed working with you and Mr. Dodge and feel that with your cooperation the Bureau of the Budget and the Central Intelligence Agency have made real progress in solving many problems of mutual concern.

As Mr. Dodge vacates this most important post I look forward to the continued development of our fine relationship with you and your staff.

My congratulations and sincere best wishes for continued success in your new appointment.

Sincerely yours,

Allen M. Dulles
Director
